MARKING GUIDELINES

MARKS: 120

These marking guidelines consist of 27 pages.

INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

1. Candidates are required to answer ALL questions.
2. This memorandum was discussed and finalised at a memorandum standardisation meeting convened by the Department of Basic Education. No further amendments may be made at the marking centre.
3. Marking SECTION A: COMPREHENSION
 - Because the focus is on understanding, incorrect spelling and language errors in responses should not be penalised unless such errors change the meaning/understanding. (Errors must still be indicated.)
 - If a candidate uses words from a language other than the one being examined, disregard those words, and if the answer still makes sense, do not penalise. However, if a word from another language is used in a text and required in an answer, this will be acceptable.
 - For open-ended questions, no marks should be awarded for YES/NO or I AGREE/I DISAGREE. The reason/substantiation/motivation is what should be considered.
 - No marks should be awarded for TRUE/FALSE or FACT/OPINION.
 - The reason/substantiation/motivation is what should be considered.
 - When one-word answers are required and the candidate gives a whole sentence, mark correct provided that the correct word is underlined/highlighted.
 - When two/three facts/points are required and a range is given, mark only the first two/three.
 - Accept dialectal variations.
 - For multiple-choice questions, accept BOTH the letter corresponding with the correct answer AND/OR the answer written out in full.
4. Marking SECTION C
 - Spelling:
 - One-word answers must be marked as correct even if the spelling is incorrect, unless the error changes the meaning of the word.
 - In full-sentence answers, incorrect spelling should be penalised if the error is in the language structure being tested.
 - Where an abbreviation is tested, the answer must be punctuated correctly.
 - Sentence structures must be grammatically correct and given in full sentences/as per instruction.
 - For multiple-choice questions, accept BOTH the letter corresponding with the correct answer AND/OR the answer written out in full as correct.

| | | NOTE: Accept any TWO of the above. | (2) |

7.1.8 Open-ended.

Accept a relevant response which shows an understanding of the following viewpoints, among others:

No.

WOMAN does live in a dream world where she believes her child (Nontobeko) is still alive. She still believes that MAN is her son-in-law.

OR

Yes.

WOMAN faces reality when she refers to what happened in her past and remembers incidents from her past. She also feels that fantasising could lead her to become insane/go crazy.

NOTE: Do NOT award a mark for YES or NO. Credit responses where a combination is given. For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 mark for an answer which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's response must be grounded in the drama. (2)

7.1.9 Open-ended.

Accept a relevant response which shows an understanding of the following viewpoints, among others:

Yes.

Man believes that the good/positive things in life are the decent ones. The birth of Nontobeko should be WOMAN's decent dreams. WOMAN must concentrate on the joy of their first born. Dreams of fear also exist like what happened to Kaptein and the loss of their child.

OR

No.

WOMAN is responsible for the creation of her own dreams. Her distrustful nature causes her to have bad dreams. Fearful dreams should be canalised as past events and WOMAN must come to terms with reality. WOMAN should concentrate on her good/positive dreams.

NOTE: Do NOT award a mark for YES or NO. Credit responses where a combination is given. For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 mark for an answer which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's response must be grounded in the drama. (3)

jeers✓ | (2) |
| | 7.2.7 | Accept a relevant, text-based explanation on the theme of psychological damage, among others: WOMAN suffers severe psychological damage when she witnesses their home being burnt down by the prisoners. Nontobeko is killed in this fire but WOMAN lives in a world where she believes her child is still alive. She is concerned about what the neighbours think of her. She believes they laugh at her and that they hate her. Kaptein suffers psychological damage when he is beaten and stoned by the workers on the farm. He remains an invalid and stares ahead of him without showing any signs of recognition. He loses his humanity and must be taken care of by WOMAN. NOTE: For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 mark for a response which is not well-substantiated . The candidate's interpretation must be grounded in the drama. | |

7.2.8 Open-ended.

Accept a relevant response which shows an understanding of the following viewpoints, among others:

Yes.

He truly exists. He is not a phantom. He is the 'sane'/realistic character who tries extremely hard to get WOMAN to face reality (the reality of Nontobeko's death). Because she is delusional, she is convinced that MAN, like her neighbours, is against her/plotting against her.

OR

No.

WOMAN cares about him/has cared since he was aged 10. She confides in him. WOMAN is much older than MAN and it is not proper to ask her such a question.

NOTE: Do NOT award a mark for YES or NO. Credit responses where a combination is given. For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 or 2 marks for an answer which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's response must be grounded in the drama.

It lies with its fore-paws crossed like a dog's just like the previous time. ✓ (2)
- 9.1.8 Open-ended.
The leopard would have eaten Oom Schalk and not lain down next to him. Oom Schalk is famous for telling lies. It could most probably be a dream.
NOTE: For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 mark for a response which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's interpretation must be grounded in the short story. (2)
- 9.1.9 Open-ended.
Accept a relevant response which shows an understanding of the following viewpoints, among others:
No. Oom Schalk still wonders whether he has only dreamt it all. Oom Schalk himself becomes confused later on. The manner in which these things have happened, is mysterious.
OR
Yes. He finds a shot leopard, lying in the same spot in the same manner as the one he has previously encountered. This makes the story credible.
NOTE: Do NOT award a mark for YES or NO. Credit responses where a combination is given. For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 mark for an answer which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's response must be grounded in the short story. (2)

- 10.1.9 Open-ended.

Accept a response where the candidate shows an understanding of the following viewpoints, among others:

No

- * Some people prefer a coal stove to an electric one.
- * Using only a little meat does not signify that you are poor it could be a choice.
- * Living in a rural setting does not imply that you are poor.
- * The 'hingeless' gate might mean that it is not fixed yet and not necessarily a sign of poverty.

OR

Yes

- * The use of a coal stove in place of an electric one is evident.
- * The gate is without hinges.
- * There is no running water inside the house and it needs to be fetched from a communal tap.
- * When he cooks he uses only a bit of meat.

NOTE: Do NOT award a mark for YES or NO. Credit responses where a combination is given. For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 mark for an answer which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's response must be grounded in the poem. (2)

10.1.10 Open-ended.

Accept a relevant response which shows an understanding of the following viewpoints, among others:

Yes.

- * The poem is about a man who is retrenched;
- * He is unemployed and takes care of the household chores;
- * The poem expresses the speaker's uncertainty/anger at his new role at home.

OR

No.

- * A song is usually associated with a happy event. In this poem it is not a happy event;
- * The poem deals with the situation of one man and not 'the unemployed', a collective, as stated in the title.

NOTE: Do NOT award a mark for YES or NO. Credit responses where a combination is given. For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 or 2 marks for an answer which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's response must be grounded in the poem. (2)

Boys fighting and trying to kill each other. ✓ (2)

10.2.6 (a) disbelief/disgust/revulsion/disappointment✓ (1)

(b) The heroes are shocked/cannot believe all the crime/wrong-doing that is taking place in the new South Africa. ✓ (1)

10.2.7 Accept a relevant, text-based explanation on the theme of despair, among others:

- * The speaker despairs when he sees that the freedom which many heroes has fought for is not realised;
- * Heroes have sacrificed their lives/endured hardship to bring about freedom for all in South Africa, however, this is not the case;
- * Violence/abuse is still rife (the drunken man beating his wife and children);
- * The speaker despairs when he realises that people are not free from fear (the homes are locked and fitted with burglar bars).

NOTE: For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 mark for a response which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's interpretation must be grounded in the poem. (2)

10.2.8 Open-ended.

Accept a relevant response which shows an understanding of the following viewpoints, among others:

Yes.

- * Lazarus is thought to be dead, only to be woken up/brought back to life again;
- * Nelson Mandela has been locked up (for 27 years) only to be released (brought back to life again);
- * In both cases what has seemed to be impossible has become possible with the release of Nelson Mandela and Lazarus being brought back to life.

OR

No.

- * Lazarus has really died while Mandela was alive;
- * The possibility of Mandela being released was not unusual/far-fetched;
- * Lazarus's death and his rising from the dead is strange/unusual/highly improbable.

NOTE: Do NOT award a mark for YES or NO. Credit responses where a combination is given. For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 or 2 marks for an answer which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's response must be grounded in the poem.

10.2.9 Open-ended.

Accept a relevant response which shows an understanding of the following viewpoints, among others:

Yes

- * The heroes referred to have fought for a South Africa where everyone can be equal and live a life without fear/be free;
- * In the poem reference is made to abuse, arson, ill-disciplined behaviour, murder and fear. All these are not what the heroes have fought for;
- * Freedom is taken away from people in various ways.

OR

No

- * Freedom from oppression has been achieved;
- * Although there is violence, it is not that widespread;
- * A wife does not have to be abused as there are authorities which she can appeal to;
- * Children should be disciplined/criminals should be imprisoned.

NOTE: Do NOT award a mark for YES or NO. Credit responses where a combination is given. For full marks, the response must be well-substantiated. A candidate can score 1 mark for a response which is not well-substantiated. The candidate's response must be grounded in the poem.
