1.5	Paragraaf onder die opskrif “Building the Culture”. Gesorteer in dalende volgorde. ✓ Building the Culture Toughness and Resilience: The harsh, rugged landscape of Ridgeview became a metaphor for the team’s playing style. They embraced the underdog mentality and were known for their physical, never-say-die approach to the game. The Raptors were built around three core principles that defined their culture: Innovation and Growth: Under the direction of Simon Fairbanks, the Raptors became known for their innovative marketing and media presence. Their games were broadcast via livestreams, attracting a global audience. The team also embraced analytics and technology in training, positioning themselves as a forward-thinking franchise in rugby . Community Engagement: The Raptors weren’t just a rugby team; they became a symbol of pride for Ridgeview. The team frequently hosted youth clinics, visited schools, and participated in charity events. Their “Raptor Rugby Academy” for young players became a breeding ground for future talent.	1		1
