4.2 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Read the extract below carefully and answer the questions that follow. Use your general knowledge of companies and corporate governance to support your answers, if necessary.

Jelle Logistics, a medium-sized company specialising in the shipping of containers and the storage of different movable assets, is experiencing issues with its fixed asset management system. There are no standardised procedures for recording fixed assets (purchased and hired), and staff are not consistently following established protocols. The company is considering issuing additional shares to raise funds to build an additional storage facility.

- 4.2.1 What document is used by a public company to offer new shares to the public? (1)
- 4.2.2 How can Jelle Logistics improve its fixed asset management system? Provide TWO points. (4)
- 4.2.3 What is the role of the board of directors in corporate governance? Provide TWO points. (4)
